b2
b7D

The following information is noted concerning W. E. B. DU BOIS:

NY 161-866

"The Worker", November 26, 1961, on page six, contained the text of W. E. B. DU BOIS' letter of application for membership in the Communist Party (CP), United States of America. It was addressed to GUS HALL, CP, United States of America, and read in part, as follows:

"On this first day of October, 1961, I am applying for admission to membership in the Communist Party of the United States. I have been long and slow in coming to this conclusion, but at last my mind is settled....."

".....in 1926, I began a new effort: I visited Communist lands. I went to the Soviet Union in 1926, 1936, 1949 and 1959; I saw the nation develop. I visited East Germany, Czechoslovakia and Poland. I spent ten weeks in China, traveling all over the land. Then, this summer, I rested a month in Rumania....."

"Communism--the effort to give all men what they need and to ask of each the best they can contribute--this is the only way of human life. It is a difficult and hard end to reach--it has and will make mistakes, but today it marches triumphantly on in education and science, in home and food, with increased freedom of thought and deliverance from dogma. In the end Communism will triumph. I want to help to bring that day."

"The path of the American Communist Party is clear: It will provide the United States with a real Third Party and thus restore democracy to this land."

"The Worker" is an East Coast Communist newspaper."

NY 161-866

The "National Guardian", issue of October 15, 1962, page one, contained an article entitled: "Dr. DU BOIS, recovering from surgery, is honored at Peking ceremonies, and read in part as follows:

"THE WORLD RENOWNED American Negro scholar W. E. B. Du Bois and his wife Shirley Graham shared China's highest tribune in Tien An Men square here October 1 with Mao Tse-tung and China's leaders. They watched half a million paraders celebrate the 13th anniversary of the People's Republic and the second year of steady advance against a series of natural disasters.

"The Du Boises were the first Americans ever given this place of honor. The action was regarded as a recognition of Dr. Du Bois' contribution to scholarship and as a friendly gesture toward America's progressives and a demonstration of support for the US Communist Party which is under attack by the government.

Information concerning the "National Guardian" is set forth in the Appendix.

W. E. B. DU BOIS died on August 27, 1963.

NY 161-866

In February, 1964, [redacted] advised that a tribute was held on February 23, 1964, in honor of W. E. B. DU BOIS at Carnegie Hall, New York City. [redacted] advised that the main address was given by Dr. JOHN HOPE FRANKLIN of Brooklyn College who expressed some bitterness of how the news media had played down, or practically ignored the death of DU BOIS. He stated that since the birth of the United States, the people of the nation have refused to regard the Negro as "just another human being", rather they regard the Negro as a 2nd class citizen, but certainly this was not the fault of DU BOIS. He stated that as great a scholar as was DU BOIS, he was rejected by his white peers because of the color of his skin. He stated that DU BOIS, as a Negro scholar, set about to educate the whites to accept people for what they are, not for the color of their skin, adding that his courage and zeal have long given inspiration to the Negro people. FRANKLIN concluded stating that the March on Washington in August, 1963 began with the drive by DU BOIS 60 years ago for first class citizenship for the Negro.

In June, 1950, [ ] advised that in the late 1930s, he was officially advised by JAMES W. FORD that LANGSTON HUGHES was a member of the Communist Party.

b2

[ ] advised on June 30, 1955, that he has known FORD as a Communist Party member since 1927, that FORD was a Vice Presidential Candidate of the Communist Party in 1932, 1936, and 1940 National Elections; from 1930 - 1945, FORD was a member of the National Committee of the Communist Party, and a member of the National Board, and was also in charge of the Communist Party, USA, Negro Commission.

NY 161-866

On March 26, 1953, LANGSTON HUGHES appeared at a public hearing before the Permanent Subcommittee on Investigations of the Committee on Government Operations of the United States Senate, First Session of the 83rd Congress. HUGHES stated that there was a period during his life when he believed in the Soviet form of Government beginning roughly with the SCOTTSBORO Case (Circa 1930) and lasting for some 10 or 12 years. HUGHES stated that his disillusionment commenced at the time of the Nazi-Soviet Pact but that he continued to sympathize with certain phases of Soviet ideology for some time after that. HUGHES continued that his re-orientation was completed some four or five years prior to his appearance before the Committee and certainly by 1950. HUGHES stated that he was not a Communist Party member nor a Communist Party sympathizer.

The June 3, 1963, issue of "Newsweek" magazine carried an article captioned "Kennedy and Baldwin; the Gulf," which reports on an informal discussion between Attorney General ROBERT F. KENNEDY, BURKE MARSHALL, Civil Rights Chief of the Department of Justice, JAMES BALDWIN and several of BALDWIN's acquaintances, which meeting was held at the apartment of JOSEPH P. KENNEDY in New York City.

The article further relates that BALDWIN, when interviewed, in his apartment in New York City, stated "He (Attorney General KENNEDY) was surprised to hear there were Negroes who wouldn't fight for their country." BALDWIN continued, "How many Negroes would fight to free Cuba when they can't be freed themselves?"

NY 161-866

At the above meeting, which was held on May 24, 1963, BALDWIN reportedly told the Attorney General that he would not think of fighting for the United States if the United States got into a war and that he was thinking of getting guns and starting to shoot white people.

The November 7, 1963 issue of the "National Guardian" contained an announcement on page 11, column 2, that JAMES BALDWIN would be one of the speakers at a "Bill of Rights Dinner" scheduled for September 13, 1963, at the Americana Hotel, New York City. The sponsor of this dinner was listed as the Emergency Civil Liberties Committee (ECLC).

Information concerning the ECLC is contained in the Appendix attached hereto.

In April, 1964, [redacted] advised that JAMES BALDWIN was in contact with HUNTER PITTS O'DELL in early April 1964. [redacted] was unable to determine the purpose of this contact between BALDWIN and O'DELL.

In July, 1962, [redacted] advised that HUNTER PITTS O'DELL was considered by the Communist Party, United States of America, as being a member of the National Committee of the Communist Party, United States of America.

In "The Saturday Evening Post" issue of July 11-18, 1964, page 76, BAYARD RUSTIN is the subject of a feature article captioned "The Lone Wolf of Civil Rights." In it, RUSTIN is said to have come to New York in 1938, as an organizer for Young Communist League (YCL) and as such, he had the job of recruiting students for the "Party". Furthermore, the article reports that during his first years in New York, RUSTIN gave most of his earnings to the "Party". He reportedly left the "Party" in 1941, the article states.

The YCL has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

The "Daily Worker", February, 1957, page one, column two, reported that BAYARD RUSTIN, Executive Secretary, War Resisters League, was an observer at the 16th National Convention, Communist Party of the United States of America (CP, USA), February 9-12, 1957, held in New York City.

The "Daily Worker" was an east coast Communist publication until it ceased publication on January 13, 1958.

[redacted] advised on September 25, 1963, that during a meeting of the National Board, CP, USA, on that date, BENJAMIN J. DAVIS remarked that "RUSTIN calls me constantly - openly."

The "New York Times", August 24, 1964, page 27, column four, reports that

BENJAMIN J. DAVIS, National Secretary,
CP, USA; died in New York City on August 22, 1964.

On February 11, 1964, [redacted] who is not personally acquainted with the appointee, furnished a letter bearing the letterhead of the Du Bois Memorial Committee, 248 West 139th Street, New York, New York. The letter requested financial support of a Memorial Tribute in honor of W.E.B. DU BOIS to be held on February 23, 1964 at Carnegie Hall, New York City. Among the names of the "initiating sponsors" listed on the letter was that of Dr. JOHN HOPE FRANKLIN.

In October, 1963, [redacted], who is not personally acquainted with the appointee, advised that the name of Dr. JOHN HOPE FRANKLIN, 1885 New York Avenue, Brooklyn 10, New York, was among the subscribers to the Social Questions Bulletin.

The Social Questions Bulletin is the official publication of the Methodist Federation for Social Action (MFSA).

Information concerning the MFSA is contained in the Appendix section of this report.

On October 28, 1965, the "Book Review Digest" of 1962 was reviewed at the New York Public Library. Pages 408 and 409 contained reviews of the book entitled "Reconstruction After The Civil War", written by JOHN HOPE FRANKLIN and published by the University of Chicago Press. Among the reviews was that published in the New York Times Book Review on November 19, 1961. This review stated as follows:

"Mr. Franklin ... strikes at a number of vulnerable stereotypes ... He demonstrates conclusively that Radical rule was, on the whole, marked by moderation rather than by excesses, and that it accomplished some lasting gains in the realm of education and public welfare. The Negroes who came to positions of power and responsibility acquitted themselves creditably in terms of both competence and honesty. As for corruption, it certainly prevailed but throughout the country and not exclusively in the South ... As far as he carries his scrutiny, Franklin makes good his contentions at every point and provides a sorely needed restatement of what scholars now know about Reconstruction ... One only wishes that he had been able to push the analysis a little further ..."

The "Book Review Digest" of 1963 on page 351 contained reviews of the book "The Emancipation Proclamation" published by Doubleday and written by JOHN HOPE FRANKLIN. The review appearing in "Commonweal" on March 8, 1963, states as follows:

"A work of scholarship that is lucid and attractive to the general reader. With self-restraint and detachment, (Professor Franklin) has more or less successfully abstracted and told the story of the Emancipation Proclamation. There are enough misconceptions about that single great document to justify his attempt to separate its genesis and its content from its indispensable predecessor, the abolitionist movement, from the Civil War itself and from the bitter aftermath."

NY 161-866

During October, 1965, several confidential informants, familiar with activities of the Communist Party in the New York City area and activities of the W.E.B. Du Bois Clubs in the New York City area and in particular at Brooklyn College, were contacted and could furnish no information concerning the appointee.

Information concerning the W.E.B. Du Bois Clubs appears in the Appendix section of this report.

On October 27, 1965, the records of the "New York Times" Morgue were reviewed by IC [redacted] [redacted]. No pertinent information concerning the appointee was located.

The "Guide to Subversive Organizations and Publications," revised and published as of December 1, 1961, prepared and released by the Committee on Un-American Activities, United States House of Representatives, Washington, D.C., contains the following concerning the Emergency Civil Liberties Committee:

"Emergency Civil Liberties Committee

'The Emergency Civil Liberties Committee is an organization with headquarters in New York, whose avowed purpose is to abolish the House Committee on Un-American Activities and discredit the FBI. * * * The committee finds that the Emergency Civil Liberties Committee, established in 1951, although representing itself as a non-Communist group, actually operates as a front for the Communist Party. It has repeatedly assisted, by means of funds and legal aid, Communists involved in Smith Act violations and similar legal proceedings. One of its chief activities has been and still is the dissemination of voluminous Communist propaganda material.'

'FRANK WILKINSON was called as a witness when he appeared in Atlanta as a representative of the Emergency Civil Liberties Committee to propagandize against the Committee on Un-American Activities and to protest its hearings. In 1956 WILKINSON was identified as a Communist Party member by a former FBI undercover agent within the party. Summoned at that time to answer the allegation, his reply to all questions was, "I am answering no questions of this committee." This also became his stock reply to questions when he appeared during the Atlanta hearings. * * * WILKINSON has since been convicted of contempt of Congress and sentenced to one year in jail.'

W.E.B. DU BOIS CLUBS OF AMERICA

A source has advised that on October 26-27, 1963, a conference of members of the Communist Party (CP), including national functionaries, met in Chicago, Illinois, for the purpose of setting in motion forces for the establishment of a new national Marxist-oriented youth organization which would hunt for the most peaceful transition to socialism. The delegates to this meeting were cautioned against the germ of anti-Soviet and anti-CP ideologies. These delegates were also told that it would be reasonable to assume that the young socialists attracted into this new organization would eventually pass into the CP itself.

A second conference of over 20 persons met in Chicago on December 28-29, 1963, for the purpose of initiating a "call" to the new youth organization and planning for a founding convention to be held in June, 1964.

A second source has advised that the founding convention for the new youth organization was held from June 19-21, 1964, at 150 Golden Gate Avenue, San Francisco, California, at which time the name W.E.B. DuBois Clubs of America was adopted. Approximately 500 delegates from throughout the United States attended this convention. The aims of this organization, as set forth in the preamble to the constitution, are: "It is our belief that this nation can best solve its problems in an atmosphere of peaceful coexistence, complete disarmament and true freedom for all peoples of the world, and that these solutions will be reached mainly through the united efforts of all democratic elements in our country, composed essentially of the working people allied in the unity of Negroes and other minorities with whites. We further fully recognize that the greatest threat to American democracy comes from the racist and right wing forces in coalition with the most reactionary sections of the economic power structure, using the tool of anti-communism to divide and destroy the unified struggle of the working people. As young people in the forces struggling for democracy, we shall actively strive to defeat these reactionary and neo-fascist elements and to achieve complete freedom and democracy for all Americans, thus enabling each individual to freely choose and build the society he would wish to live in. Through these struggles we feel the American people will realize the viability of the socialist alternatives."

The constitution further states that this new organization shall be a membership organization open to individuals, or if five or more people so desire a chapter can be formed which shall in turn be guided by the policies and principles of the parent organization.

The second source has also advised that at the founding convention it was voted that the organization should be temporarily headquartered in San Francisco, California, although no specific physical location was decided upon. This same source advised on June 29, 1964, that the temporary headquarters of this organization is 1007 McAllister Street, San Francisco, which is the headquarters of the W.E.B. On October 27, 1965, [redacted] Clerk, Comptrollers Office, advised SA [redacted] that JOHN HOPE FRANKLIN, 1885 New York Avenue, Brooklyn, New York, was born January 2, 1915 at Rentiesville, Oklahoma. He was hired as a professor of history on October 1, 1964 at an annual salary of $22,000.00. On October 1, 1965, he was reappointed for one year at a salary of $25,000.00. His local address is recorded as 5805 Blackstone. [redacted] said he has no other administrative record of the appointee.

On October 28, 1965, [redacted] History Department, advised SA [redacted] that he was responsible for hiring the appointee; and in fact went to London, England to recruit the appointee who was there as a Pitt Scholar at Cambridge University. [redacted] said he has personally known the appointee for about three years through professional contacts and has been [redacted] for the past year. [redacted] said appointee is the most distinguished and prominent Negro in America today and that he, [redacted] is elated to have such a scholar on his staff. [redacted] said that demands made upon appointee's time for "lectures, debates, consultation, etc." detract considerably from his teaching duties and now he is working on the President's task force on International Education.

[redacted] said he believes appointee to be an unquestionably loyal American who has devoted his life to the study of his country and written several books on the subject. [redacted] said he knows nothing of an adverse nature regarding the appointee and recommends him for any position for which he may be considered.

CG 161-567

To her knowledge the appointee appears to be an intelligent and responsible person. There is no reason to question his loyalty to the United States.

[redacted] said she could not suggest anyone in this neighborhood who knows the appointee and his family on a close basis.

Credit and Arrest

[redacted] Clerk, Chicago Credit Bureau, Incorporated, Chicago, advised IC [redacted] on October 25, 1965, the files showed no information for the appointee and his wife, Mrs. JOHN HOPE (AURELIA E. WHITTINGTON) FRANKLIN, 5805 South Blackstone Avenue, Chicago.

Miscellaneous

Confidential Informants who are familiar with some Communist matters in the Chicago area were contacted during the course of this investigation and advised they were not personally acquainted with the appointee and his wife nor did they possess any information regarding them.

The Winter, 1965 issue of the magazine "Freedomways" is the first quarter issue of this publication for 1965, Volume 5, Number 1, and is a special memorial issue devoted to W.E.B. DUBOIS. "Freedomways" is self-described as "A Quarterly Review of the Negro Freedom Movement", published quarterly by Freedomways Associates, Incorporated, at 799 Broadway, New York, New York.

Information concerning Freedomways Associates, Incorporated, will be found in latter pages.

Included on Page 11 of the Winter, 1965 issue of the magazine "Freedomways" are greetings from JOHN HOPE FRANKLIN as follows:

"I am pleased to learn that 'Freedomways' is planning an issue to memorialize Dr. Du Bois. For the latter portion of my life, Dr. Du Bois has been an inspiration to me and to most members of my generation. I remember so well the first time I heard him speak. It was in 1926 at the State Teachers Association in Oklahoma. Although I was a mere lad I was greatly moved by what he said on that occasion. From then to the end of his life he continued to be a great source of inspiration. His impeccable scholarship, his fearlessness as a leader, and his determination to secure freedom for all peoples, were the hallmarks of his great and illustrious life. I am certain that he will continue to wield enormous influence through his immortal writings."

"The Worker" issue of November 261, 1961, carried an article on Page 1, which stated in part:

Dr. W.E.B. DU BOIS, outstanding figure in American letters, father of the modern Negro freedom movement and long-time crusader for the national independence of African peoples, has joined the Communist Party of the United States.

"The Worker" is an east coast Communist newspaper.

The March 27, 1964 edition of "Muhammad Speaks", self-described commencing with the February 5, 1965 issue as published on a weekly basis by Muhammad's Mosque No. 2, 634 East 79th Street, Chicago, Illinois, on Page 5 carried an article, "Never Allow Oppressors to Pick Your Leaders." This article noted that for the first time in America a Negro leader who was an avowed communist, was openly given the highest honors by Negro intellectuals, artists and thousands of civic and fraternal figures in a gallant memorial tribute. The article noted that so great was the stature of the late W.E.B. DU BOIS, Negro historian, philosopher, Pan-Africanist and intellectual giant, that many who would never have dared utter a word of approbation for his political and sociological outlook while he lived -- helped immortalize his memory without reservation.

"Muhammad Speaks" is a weekly newspaper published by Muhammad's Mosque No. 2, 634 East 79th Street, Chicago, Illinois.

Information concerning Muhammad's Mosque No. 2 can be found at the end of this report.

Included in this article was the following excerpt:

"I wish I could eradicate from my memory the picture of Dr. Du Bois, handcuffed like some common thief, accused at eighty years of age of being the agent of a foreign power," said Dr. JOHN HOPE FRANKLIN, Chairman of the Department of History, Brooklyn College and keynote speaker of the memorila.

"Even his later exoneration," the noted educator said, "cannot obliterate from my mind the impression that, perhaps he was the victim not merely of the fanaticism that characterized those years, but that he was being punished for what he had represented for more than half a century."

APPENDIX

NATION OF ISLAM, Formerly Referred to as the Muslim Cult of Islam,
Aka. Muhammad's Temples of Islam

In January, 1957, a source advised ELIJAH MUHAMMAD has described his organization on a nationwide basis as the "Nation of Islam" and "Muhammad's Temples of Islam."

On May 7, 1965, a second source advised ELIJAH MUHAMMAD is the national leader of the Nation of Islam (NOI); Muhammad's Temple of Islam No. 2, 5335 South Greenwood Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, is the national headquarters of the NOI; and in mid-1960 MUHAMMAD and other NOI officials, when referring to MUHAMMAD's organization on a nationwide basis, commenced using either "Mosque" or Temple" when mentioning one of "Muhammad's Temples of Islam."

The NOI is an all-Negro organization which was originally organized in 1930 in Detroit, Michigan. MUHAMMAD claims to have been selected by Allah, the Supreme Being, to lead the so-called Negro race out of slavery in the wilderness of North America by establishing an independent black nation in the United States. Members following MUHAMMAD's teachings and his interpretation of the "Koran" believe there is no such thing as a Negro; that the so-called Negroes are slaves of the white race, referred to as "white devils," in the United States; and that the white race, because of its exploitation of the so-called Negroes, must and will be destroyed in the approaching "War of Armageddon."

In the past, officials and members of the NOI, including MUHAMMAD, have refused to register under the provisions of the Selective Service Acts and have declared that members owe no allegiance to the United States.

On May 5, 1958, the first source advised MUHAMMAD had, upon advice of legal counsel, tempered his personal statements and instructions to his ministers concerning the principles of his organization in order to avoid possible prosecution by the United States government; however, he did not indicate any fundamental changes in the teachings of his organization.

On May 3, 1965, a third source advised MUHAMMAD had, early in July, 1958, decided to de-emphasize the religious aspects of the teachings of Islam and to stress the economic benefits to be derived by those Negroes who joined the NOI. This policy change, according to MUHAMMAD, would help him acquire additional followers and create more interest in his programs.

U. of C.'s Franklin Defends Principle Of School Boycotts

By William Braden

School boycotts were defended Thursday by a distinguished Negro scholar, John Hope Franklin.

Franklin took no position on the walkout scheduled — and then prohibited by court order — for Thursday and Friday in Chicago. But he firmly endorsed the general principle of school boycotting, and he criticized a Chicago Board of Education suit that seeks a permanent injunction against such demonstrations.

He expressed his views during a press conference at which a group of University of Chicago faculty members announced their support of open-occupancy legislation.

American Tradition

"Boycotting is a very old American tradition," said Franklin, professor of history at the U. of C. "It was one of the most important instrumentalities we used in carrying out the cold war against England in 1775."

Franklin said he withdrew his own son from school during a New York boycott that occurred when Franklin was on the faculty of Brooklyn College.

He said it was "begging the question" to argue that children are exploited by school boycotts.

If a boycott is legitimate, he said, the exploitation of the children would lie in the situation giving rise to the demonstration.

Franklin is an internationally respected authority on various facets of American history including slavery, the Civil War and Reconstruction.

Opposes Permanent Bar

He said he had been out of town in recent days and therefore was not familiar enough with the issues to comment on the validity of the current Chicago boycott. But he said he was "categorically" opposed to any injunction that would permanently bar parents from expressing their "outrage" over de facto segregation.

Franklin said the Bill of Rights provides a constitutional basis for boycotting, and he added:

"Don't forget Sam Adams (the Boston patriot whose protests did much to bring on the American Revolution). He did a lot of boycotting, and for reasons that maybe were not as crucial as these. . . . Boycotting and demonstrating in various ways are not only legitimate but quite American."

Franklin was one of five professors on an ad hoc U. of C. committee that circulated a petition supporting open-occupancy legislation in the Illinois General Assembly.

Committee Members

Other committee members are Alan D. Wade, associate professor in the School of Social Service Administration; John G. Cawelti, associate professor of English; Marshall G. Hodgson, professor of social thought and social science; and Alvin Pitcher, associate professor in the Divinity School.

Wade said at the press conference in the School of Social Service: Building that 141 U. of C. faculty members have signed a statement supporting Illinois House Bill 257.

That bill was killed Tuesday by the Republican majority on the Senate License and Miscellaneous Committee. But Wade said he was certain the statement signers also would support House Bill 1246, another open-occupancy measure that is still alive in the House.

'Unwritten Barriers'

The open-occupancy statement reads in part:

"We believe that both justice and practical necessity compel our community to find some means of overcoming the unwritten, but rigid, barriers which have perpetuated a pattern of residential segregation in this city for half a century.

"The only practical way in which a large, diverse metropolitan population can express a consensus on such a vital issue is through legislation af-
